SPEAKERS

ELDER LEGRAND CURTIS JR.

Panel: "Out of Obscurity: Documenting the Restoration of the Gospel"

Elder LeGrand Curtis Jr. received a bachelor's degree in economics from Brigham Young University and a juris doctor degree from the University of Michigan. He worked as an attorney in Salt Lake City, concluding his career as a founding partner in the law firm of Manning Curtis Bradshaw & Bednar and as an adjunct professor at the J. Reuben Clark Law School. He served a mission in Italy and later returned with his wife, Jane, to serve as mission leaders of the Italy Padova Mission, and then later as the Directors of the Rome Italy Temple Visitors' Center. He is an emeritus General Authority Seventy, having served as the Africa West Area President and in various capacities at Church headquarters. He ended his service as a General Authority as the Church Historian and Recorder and the Executive Director of the Church History Department, including his work with the Joseph Smith Papers. He now serves on the Board of Directors of the Wilford Woodruff Papers Foundation.

ELDER KYLE S. MCKAY

Panel: "Out of Obscurity: Documenting the Restoration of the Gospel"

Elder Kyle S. McKay is currently serving as the 18th Church Historian and Recorder and Executive Director of the Church History Department. He received a bachelor of arts degree in English and a juris doctor degree from Brigham Young University. From 1987 to 2018 he practiced law in Oregon and Utah. He was serving as a member of the Fifth Quorum of the Seventy in the Utah North Area when he was sustained as a General Authority Seventy on March 31, 2018. He and his wife, Jennifer, have nine children.

MATTHEW C. GODFREY

Panel Moderator

Matthew Godfrey is the Manager of Religious Publications at Brigham Young University. He has a PhD in American and Public History from Washington State University and served as the managing historian of the Joseph Smith Papers from 2013 to 2021. He has published widely in the field of Latter-day Saint history, especially on topics related to Joseph Smith, Zion's Camp, and the beet sugar industry of the Intermountain West. He is a frequent presenter at BYU Education Week and has been on podcasts such as Follow Him, All In, Sunday on Monday, and Church History Matters, and has served as an Advisor to the Wilford Woodruff Papers Board since 2020. He is married to Carrie Huber, and they have four wonderful children.

SPEAKERS

Previously, Josh was the founder and/or CEO of several tech companies related to data storage and education technology. He also restored old military vehicles, built combat robots, and is an amateur astronomer, welder, machinist, and archaeometallurgist. He was educated in computer science at Berkeley and served a mission in Boston, Massachusetts.

KEITH A. EREKSON

Promises that Never Decay: Wilford Woodruff and Patriarchal Blessings

Keith Erekson is an author, teacher, and public historian who grew up in Baltimore, Maryland, served a mission in Brazil, and currently works for the Church History Department in efforts to encourage outreach and historical engagement. He holds a bachelor's and master's degree from Brigham Young University, a doctoral degree in history from Indiana University, and a master of business administration from the University of Texas at El Paso.

SPEAKERS

KARIN WULF

Wilford Woodruff at the Crossroads of American Genealogy

A historian of gender, family, and politics in eighteenth-century British America, Karin Wulf earned her PhD at Johns Hopkins University. Her latest book, Lineage: Genealogy and the Power of Connection in Early America, was published by Oxford University Press in July 2025. Before starting her current position at the John Carter Brown Library at Brown University in 2021, she was the Executive Director of the Omohundro Institute of Early American History & Culture from 2013 to 2021 and a professor of history at the College of William & Mary.

JENNY REEDER

"Thou Hast Been a True Friend": Eliza R. Snow and Wilford Woodruff

Jenny Reeder is a nineteenth-century women's history specialist at the Church History Department, currently working with historic sites. She has a PhD in American history from George Mason University with an emphasis in women's history, and a master's degree from New York University in history, archival management, and documentary editing. Jenny was the lead historian/editor for Rise Up and Speak: Selected Discourses of Eliza R. Snow and At the Pulpit: 182 Years of Discourses of Latter-day Saint Women. She published a biography of Emma Smith, First: The Life and Faith of Emma Smith, in 2021, and co-edited a collection, The Witness of Women: Firsthand Experiences and Testimonies of the Restoration, in 2017.

RONALD K. ESPLIN

Priesthood Keys: Wilford Woodruff's Witness

Ron Esplin graduated with a degree in history from the University of Utah and has graduate degrees in history from the University of Virginia and Brigham Young University. He served as a missionary in the Central American Mission, worked as a historian and archivist in the Church History Department, and then worked for 25 years as a professor of Church history and a senior research historian at the Joseph Fielding Smith Institute for Latter-day Saint History, 16 of those years as director of the Institute. From 2002 to 2012 he served as Managing Editor of the Joseph Smith Papers. He is also a past president of the Mormon History Association. Today he serves as director of the Brigham Young Center.

SPEAKERS

STEVEN C. HARPER

Jesus Christ, Wilford Woodruff, and the Founding Fathers

Steven C. Harper is married to sculptor Jennifer Sebring Harper. He is a Visiting Fellow at the Neal A. Maxwell Institute for Religious Scholarship and a professor of Church history and doctrine at Brigham Young University, and he serves as the Executive Editor of the Wilford Woodruff Papers. Previously he served as editor in chief of BYU Studies; as the managing historian and a general editor of Saints: The Story of the Church of Jesus Christ in the Latter Days; and as a volume editor of The Joseph Smith Papers. He has authored numerous books and articles, and is currently working on a study of the Doctrine and Covenants to be published in the Guides to Sacred Texts series by Oxford University Press.

The Wilford Woodruff Papers

A RICH & HOLY LEGACY

1828-1898

"Recording the dealings of God with us here on the earth . . . is a Rich & Holy legacy which is justly due our posterity."

— Wilford Woodruff
